

LifeGroup Questions for the week of September 25, 2016
“Doing All Things to the Glory of God” 1 Corinthians 10:23-11:1

1. What are some of those activities that Christians disagree on whether or not it is acceptable to participate?
2. What is most difficult about understanding and applying this passage?
3. What are some of the things a Christian should think through before deciding whether or not to participate in something?
4. Can you think of and share an instance where you decided not to participate in something because of your Christian convictions or testimony? What were your reasons?
5. Why are grace and patience required when we disagree on what is acceptable to participate in and what is not? Why is this so important?
6. How does doing all things to the glory of God help us to make wise decisions in these debatable areas?