

LifeGroup Questions for the week of November 5, 2017
“Concerning the Collection” 1 Corinthians 16:1-4

1. In what ways does the gospel cause us to be less self-centered? How does belief in the gospel result in loving others more? How have you seen this in your own life?

2. In what ways does our view and use of money tend to be a barometer of our heart's spiritual condition? How does the gospel help to change our perspective on money?

3. How has your own perspective on money and possessions changed since becoming a Christian?

4. Why was a gift for the suffering saints in Jerusalem so important? What would such a gift communicate? How did this advance gospel mission?

5. What are some modern examples of similar gospel mission? How might something like filling a shoebox with small items and gospel literature help to advance gospel mission? What are some other ways we can invest in gospel mission?
