

LifeGroup Questions for the week of April 16, 2017
“Resurrection: The Ultimate Promise Fulfilled”

1. How is Jesus’ promise to rise from the dead “the ultimate promise?”
2. What does it mean to say that the resurrection of Jesus is “the most certain event that was never expected”?
3. Why weren’t the disciples anticipating Jesus’ resurrection? What might this say about our own doubts and fears?
4. What does the resurrection prove about Jesus? How should this truth change the way we live?
5. Read Acts 1:9-11. How is it that Jesus’ second coming might also be considered “the most certain event that was never expected”? What can we do to ensure that we aren’t surprised when it happens?