

LifeGroup Questions for the week of April 15, 2018
“God Blesses Humanity” Genesis 2:4-18

1. The first words humanity heard from God were words of blessing (1:28). What does this tell us about God and His original relationship to humanity?
2. What are some of the things that Genesis 2:7 tell us about mankind and how we should understand and view ourselves and the rest of humanity?
3. Which of the six blessings on humanity stood out to you most and why?
4. What effect are God’s blessings upon all mankind supposed to have on us (Acts 14:15-17; Acts 17:25-27)? How should humanity respond to these blessings? How does humanity often respond instead?
5. How are boundaries from God actually blessings? Why do we often fail to view them that way? How does the gospel provide the answer for trespassing God’s boundaries?
