“Jesus’ Perfect Love for His Own” 1 Corinthians 13:1

1. Why is understanding Jesus’ love for us so important? Why might we be tempted to think His love is less than it actually is?
2. How do 1 Corinthians 13:4-7 and John 13:1 relate to each other? How can John 13:1 serve as a kind of summary for all the events of the passion week?
3. What does Jesus’ full knowledge teach us about His love for us? What does the cross teach us about Jesus’ love for us?
4. What does it mean to be one of Jesus’ “own”? How should this reality effect the way we view our relationship to Jesus?
5. What does it mean that Jesus loved his own “to the end”? How should this encourage us?
