“A Church on Mission is Uncommon” Haggai 2:10-23 – Dr. Jay Klopfenstein

1. What about the missions conference this weekend impacted you most? In what ways is missions conference helpful?
2. What has been your experience with missions (support a missionary, gone on a missions trip, hosting a missionary in your home, serving at a homeless shelter, etc.)? Share a bit of your experience and impressions.
3. What was the object lesson in Haggai 2? What was the point of that object lesson?
4. Jay explained that we cannot make ourselves holy by our own power. What does this teach us about our need for Jesus? After we are saved, how does personal effort relate to our holiness/sanctification?
5. Since we can't make ourselves holy and acceptable to God by our own efforts, what does this tell us about the world's religions? What does it teach us about the need for missions?
