

LifeGroup Questions for the week of September 18, 2016
“Holding Fast the Confession of Our Hope” Hebrews 10:23

1. How do baptism and communion both serve as public professions of faith in Christ? How are they similar and how are they different?

2. Why is believer's baptism important? What are some of the reasons a believer might not have been baptized?

3. What is “the confession of our hope”? How do a confession of hope and a confession of faith relate?

4. What does it mean to hold fast the confession of our hope? What kinds of things might tempt us to waver?

5. How does God's faithfulness serve as a help to us in holding fast to our confession? So if we find ourselves tempted to waver and loosen our grip on our confession, what should we do?
