“Distinguishing the Church from the World” 1 Corinthians 5:9-13

1. Describe what was going on in the church at Corinth as Paul explains it in chapter 5. How should the church have handled this situation?
2. Pastor Lance said, “When it comes to holiness, we often expect too much from the world and too little from ourselves.” Do you agree or disagree? Explain.
3. Why do you think Paul uses the term “so-called brother” in vs. 11? What does that tell us?
4. Why does Paul command them not to associate with this person or even share a meal with them? How would you handle this if one of your close friends was under discipline?
5. Why is a distinction between the world and the church so important and how does the discipline process help to maintain this distinction?
