

LifeGroup Questions for the week of April 24, 2016
“Stewarding the Gifts of Singleness and Marriage”

NOTE: May 1, 2016 will be the last week LifeGroup questions will be posted until Fall 2016. Have a great summer!

1. Why does Paul think singleness is preferable to marriage? Have you seen an example of this?

2. In what ways can we subtly denigrate singleness? If it is truly a gift from God, how can we value this gift more highly and be an encouragement to those who have it?

3. Marriage too is a gift from God. What might keep us from viewing marriage as a gift? How can we grow in our appreciation for it?

4. What kinds of things can happen to a marriage where there is neglect of sexual intimacy? Why is this intimacy so important?

5. How can giving authority over our own bodies to our spouse contribute to a closer marriage? What are some of the risks of doing this? Why is doing this important?
