

LifeGroup Questions for the week of April 22, 2018
“God’s Plan for Marriage” Genesis 2:18-25

1. In what ways is biblical marriage being undermined or attacked in our culture? How would you answer the objection that marriage is just a social construct and can be altered accordingly?

2. How does the biblical narrative of the first marriage elevate and underscore the importance of marriage? Why is biblical marriage good for human flourishing?

3. How is man’s need for woman illustrated in this text? What things are communicated by the woman being fashioned out of the man’s rib?

4. What was the man’s response to the creation of woman? What does this say about the beauty of God’s design of woman and marriage?

5. How has sin effected God’s good plan of marriage? How does this reveal our need of the gospel?