“Mankind’s Fall and God’s Plan for Redemption” Genesis 3:7-15

1. Make a list of all the ways this passage demonstrates that sin has thoroughly corrupted us and another list of the ways this passage demonstrates God’s grace.

2. How do we sometimes try to hide our sin and shame from God and others? Why are we so prone to doing this?

3. What is the proper response to our sin and shame? What is true about God that should encourage us toward this proper response?

4. How does shifting blame for our sin actually take us deeper into sin? How should we respond instead of shifting blame?

5. How does Genesis 3:15 point us to the gospel? How should this verse be an encouragement to us?
