

LifeGroup Questions for the week of January 8, 2017
“Entrusted: Living a Life of Faithfulness” Selected Scriptures

1. How does the world view ownership? How should the truth that “God owns it all” change us? Why are we so prone to forget this?

2. How does the fact that God has entrusted you with what you have change the way you view and care for what you have?

3. What does it mean to be a faithful steward? How should we measure faithfulness?

4. Why are Kingdom investment and gospel advancement important components of faithfulness with God’s resources?

5. How does understanding God’s ownership of all things and our faithful stewardship help to inform our purpose on life?

6. Why is keeping the gospel in sight so important when it comes to evaluating our faithfulness?